

MARY NEAL

1925

Dear Mary Neal

You have lived in the life of your time and have woven your ideals and your creative work into the fabric of the national community. Your work has been the expression of your spirit; it has been done by the inspiration of your desire and will so that its success has been in a true sense its own reward, and you have been content to forego

both financial and
public recognition.

But you have
many friends who
recognize the value
and importance of your life and work, and who appreciate and admire
you. We are glad to have a chance of

expressing our affection and gratitude by our Presentation of One Hundred Guineas which we hope will be a means of bringing
you those gifts of happiness and pleasure
which you have yourself so generously
dispersed to many.
